ARTS DEPARTMENT

GardenFlag Workshop We will hold the garden flag workshop at the main building at Grand Court on Cottage Hill Road on Thursday, October 23 at 1 p.m. Please let Anna or Gwyn know if you can come. We will have plain flags (not bigger than 13 x 18 inches) to make for the contest, and will have some ideas; but would like for anyone making a flag to bring along your creative ideas. If sewing or gluing, it should be simple shapes. If painting, you can be more creative. We will call those whose name we got at the meeting, call Anna if you are not on the list.

Department meeting

Plans were made for our November meeting and the Arts and Crafts Competition. Call Gwyn if you have questions about the craft categories. Most anything you make will fit somewhere. Craft should have been made sometime during this year.

We need 4 members per performance to sign up at the general meeting to usher for the Community Chorus and holiday play at the Cultural Arts Center.

From Edith Maxwell, Public Affairs:

1. Amanda Camp of Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) will be the speaker for the October general meeting of CCWC on October 22.
2. The second annual Art Exhibition and Auction for the benefit of New Hope Boys' Home will be held at the Carrollton Cultural Arts Center on Saturday, November 8. Phone 770-834-9181 for more information.
3. Public Affairs is planning a trip to Andersonville National Historic Site on November 10 - 11. The site consists of the National Prisoner of War Museum, the Andersonville National Cemetery, and the prison site. Note that Nov. 11 is Veterans Day and an excellent time to visit the site. Please call Edith Maxwell if you are interested in going (770-854-5340).
4. Friends of New Hope Boys' Home is planning its second Tour of Homes for Sunday, December 7. Homes are needed for the tour. Please call Jackie Ward (770-832-3034) if you, or someone you know would like to participate. One does not have to be a member of CCWC in order to host a tour.
5. Department Chairs: Please remember to return completed nomination forms for our Citizenship Award by the general meeting on October 22.
6. Please contact Margaret Hilley (770-830-8989) if you can help women prisoners.

Home Life Department thanks all of our club members and families for their donations that made the Silent Auction such a huge success: Karen Hartley, Helen Faye Lewis, Joy Gould, Martha Thurman, Nina & Royce Chaffin, Eleanor Browder & Merrill Law. Nancy & Sandra thank Marian Wynn, Jackie Ward, Dot Deese, Joy Gould, and her step-son, Richard Gould for helping with the auction.

Carrollton Civic Woman's Club
Board Meeting
October 9, 2003

Members Present: Nancy Tunnell, Sandra Law, Martha Ann Saunders, Eleanor Hoomes, Virginia McGee, Karen Hartley, Joy Gould, Edith Maxwell, Nina Chaffin

Visitor: Tish Stone

President Nina Chaffin welcomed all members, called the meeting to order, and opened with two quotes about "cheerfulness."

Minutes of the September Board meeting were approved as published.

Officers' Reports

President's Report: 1. In the absence of the treasurer, President Chaffin reported that ticket sales to the salad luncheon fundraiser totaled $2,850 with about 6 accounts still outstanding. This amount is about $200 more than was raised last year. The silent auction raised $1314, for a total so far of $4,164.

2. The Georgia Federation Fall District Meeting will be in Forsyth, GA, on Saturday, Oct. 11. Martha Ann Saunders will attend as a club delegate and Karen Hartley will attend as a district delegate.

3. A request was received from Margarette Hilley for help with a Women in Prison project. The request was placed with the Public Affairs department, and that department will work with Margarette.

4. The president appointed the nominating committee, consisting of Sandra Law, Martha Thurman, and Martha Ann Saunders. The slate of new officers is to be presented at the November general meeting.

1st Vice-President's Report: 1. Vice-President Saunders submitted 2 applications for membership: Janet Fryman and Micki McDonald. Both applications were unanimously approved.

2. The vice-president requested that she be allowed to dispose of the many vases collected over the years for various table decorations. Suggestion was made to take the vases to Goodwill and Eleanor Hoomes offered to do so.

3. The Spring District meeting date of March 13, 2004, was announced. The CCWC will be the host club. S & R Catering will be contacted about the arrangements.

2nd Vice- President's Report: None

Corresponding Secretary's Report: The newsletter will go out on the 14th.

Treasurer's Report: Printed copies of her report were distributed.

Department Reports

Arts: In the absence of the Arts chairman, Martha Ann Saunders reported that 5 club members had attended a line dancing workshop in Atlanta on the previous Saturday.

Conservation: Chairman Hoomes stated that the primary plans for the Curtis garden were ahead of schedule.

Education: In the absence of the chairman, board members reported that approximately a dozen people were in attendance at the first Nutrition Workshop.

Home Life: Co-chairman Law stressed that the department is still collecting caps for cancer patients.

Co-chairman Tunnell presented a list of the items donated for the Silent Auction and the price received for the individual items.

International: Chairman McGee encouraged members to invite foreign students to their homes during the holidays.

Public Affairs: 1. Chairman Maxwell announced that Amanda Camp from CASA would be the speaker for the October meeting.

2. Nominations for the Citizen of the Year award are due at the October meeting.

3. The trip to Andersonville is scheduled for November 10 and 11. Club members are asked to commit if they wish to take the trip.

4. Cents-off coupons totaling $3040.58 were mailed the end of September.

5. A request from the Rape Crisis Center for a decorated Christmas tree to be auctioned off at their Nov. 22nd fundraiser was discussed. Public Affairs will contact the Arts department about the project.

Committee Reports

Legislative: Members were reminded of the upcoming municipal elections and the county-wide SPLOST referendum. A public candidate's forum for city officials will be held at the Court House Annex on Monday, October 27. Voting is Nov 4th, and absentee voting will take place at the County Election Office the week prior.

Book Club: Jewel Johnson will host on October 16th, at 10 a.m.

Special Report

GaFWC President-Elect Tish Stone spoke with the board concerning projects of the GaFWC: building a Habitat house ($50,000 needed); the President's Special Project of the Dream House for Medically Fragile Children (GaFWC needs to raise $18,000 for a matching share for a van); renovation of the Lipscomb Cottage at Tallulah Falls.

The meeting adjourned at 11:50 a.m.
