The Georgia Clubwoman

Thanks to Karen, the CCWC members whose email addresses appear in the 2004-06 membership book will soon begin receiving The Georgia Clubwoman by email at no cost. The journal is published quarterly by the GaFWC and until now was available only in print format and only by paid subscription. Please let Karen know if you'd like to have your email address added or changed.

Tallulah Falls School

In a letter to all GaFWC club presidents, Tallulah Falls President Kent Anglin has asked that clubwomen recommend students who may wish to enroll for fall 2005. A copy of his letter is attached.

Picnic for International Students: 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 17 McIntosh Reserve

This is a club-wide function and all members should make plans to be there. We are expecting about 100 people. Fried chicken and drinks will be furnished, but we also need vegetable casseroles, fruits and desserts. We need lots of food, so double up on your recipes. And don't forget to save items for the lending box!

Directions to the park and plans for carpooling will be announced in next month's newsletter.

Election Day

Remember to vote! As election day approaches, tune your radio to any of the four local stations and you're likely to hear a familiar voice reminding you that July 20 is the big day. In a cooperative project with the League of Women Voters, five CCWC members have recorded public service announcements that will run this month and again in November. Participants are Penny Ayers, Barbara Green, Sharon Hearnburg, Martha Ann Saunders, and Clemmie Walker.

August Institute

All members are invited, and department chairs are encouraged, to attend the annual GAFWC institute in Athens on August 21. A schedule of events is attached. The registration deadline is August 10. Contact Martha Ann for more information.

Coupon Collections

Members collected 1,493 coupons worth a total of $1,255.39 during the month of June.
