Next General Meeting

Wednesday, January 26, 11:30, Sunset Hills Country Club
The International Affairs Department will present the program.

- Enjoy international cuisine and learn more about the Heifer Project, a program that relates to women all over the world
- Vote on three proposals (see page 3) to be presented to the general membership:
 - Honorary Membership Category
 - New Dues Payment Structure
 - 2005 Budget
- Find out who will receive the Citizen of the Year Award

A Club Concern

Marian Wynn's son's home in Fayetteville burned the week before Christmas and the family lost most of its belongings. Friends and family have been wonderful and they have started to rebuild. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers.

A Membership Change

Joan Borders has requested inactive membership status.

Actions Taken by Board on January 13

- Recommended that the proposed 2005 budget be presented to the general membership
- Made changes to the schedule of programs for the 12 monthly meetings
- Approved Joan Borders's request for inactive status

Pancake Breakfasts

The CCWC has 200 pancake breakfast tickets to sell. Please come to the January 26 meeting prepared to take some to sell or buy. The breakfasts are sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and will take place each Saturday in February.

Revised Program Schedule

Please update the schedule of club programs given on page 11 of your 2002-2004 membership handbook to read as follows:

January	International Affairs
February	Home Life
March	Officers, Awards
April	Conservation
May	Tallulah Falls
June	CIP Project
July	Leadership
August	International Students Picnic
September	Education
October	Public Affairs
November	Arts
December	Christmas Luncheon

Department Reports

Conservation: The Department will meet Monday, February 7, at 11:30 at the Evergreen Chinese Restaurant.

Beginning and experienced birdwatchers alike will enjoy the annual Great Backyard Bird Count February 18-21. The count is sponsored by the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology. See www.birdsource.org/GBBC for information.

Keep Carroll Beautiful plans to construct a "Litter Index" of Carroll County from information gathered by volunteers on Monday, January 31. The day will start at 8:30 a.m. with a short training session at the Chamber of Commerce. Call Laura Miller at 770-832-2446 if you'd like to participate.

Education: The Education Department is gearing up for this year's Community Leadership Education Workshop (CLEW) on Thursday, March 3. The workshop will be held at the In-Zone Building again this year from 8:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. If you would like to help by offering your time during that day, helping with refreshments, etc., please contact Helon Styles (770-838-1112) or Penny Ayers (770-854-4801).

Home Life: February is Heart Month. Mark your calendars now for Saturday, February 26. It is the annual Community Health Fair to be held at the Villa Rica Health Care Center. More information will be coming soon.

International Affairs: The University's annual International Night is scheduled for Thursday, January 27, at 6:45. Tickets are $5.00.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is directing civic clubs to respond to the tsunami tragedy by contributing directly to reliable, well-established agencies such as:

Childreach
155 Plan Way
Warwick, RI 02886-1099

CARE
151 Ellis St., NE
Atlanta, GA 30303-2440

Save the Children
54 Wilton Rd.
Weston, CT 06880

U.S. Fund for UNICEF
333 East 39th St., 6th Floor
New York, NY 10016

Direct Relief International
27 S. LaPatera Lane
Santa Barbara, CA 93117

Please clearly designate your donation for Tsunami Relief, note that you are a GFWC club member and report your contributions in the Reaching Out Internationally program.

Public Affairs: Many thanks to all of you for helping make the December Tour of Homes such a success. Proceeds amounted to $7,863, which will be used for the benefit of the boys at New Hope Boys' Home. Thanks also for your time and donations for the Christmas wish lists at New Hope. Due to your efforts, we were able to provide for five boys and purchase gift cards and stocking stuffers. Again, thanks so much.

Coupons for overseas military families in 2004 gave a yearly total of 32,182 coupons worth $27,767.36.

Here is the mailing address for a Carrollton man who is currently serving in Iraq:

PFC Mirabelli Carlo
