Next General Meeting:

The February general meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, February 25, at the Maple Street Mansion. Lunch will be served at 11:30 and the meeting will begin at 12:00. The cost of the meal is $10.00. The club officers are in charge of the program.

Make lunch reservations for yourself and any guests no later than Friday, February 20, by calling the receptionist at SMI, 770-834-0831.

You are on the Permanent Reservation List if you have paid for lunches in advance. If you are not going to attend, call Karen Hartley at 770-459-6050 to cancel. Please do not call the Mansion!

Club Concern:

Edith Maxwell's husband, Hugh, who is undergoing radiation treatments and chemotherapy

Actions Taken by Board on February 12:

- Approved treasurer's report for the Civic Woman's Club Foundation and for the Civic Woman's Club
- Approved the membership applications of Sandra Moore and Janet Kiczek
- Appointed by-laws committee: Nina Chaffin (chair), Ginny McGee, Aloma Parker, Sharon Hearnburg
- Approved voting delegates to 6th District Spring Meeting and State Convention: Gwyn Chesnut and Martha Thurman
- Heard preliminary plans for the 6th District Spring Meeting, March 13, at S&R Catering
- Approved March 25 as the date for the CLEW Workshop

Club Dues:

Dues for 2004 are $40 and are now due. Members are also asked to pay for 2004 lunches in advance; the "spring" lunches for February through May at $10 each will be $40. "Fall" lunch charges will be collected in September. If you pay for lunches in advance you will be on the standing list and will not need to make monthly reservations.

Department Reports:

Arts: The Arts Department is working to arrange weekly trips to visit student art exhibits at UWG. Plans are also being made for an after-school cake and ice cream party for the puppet makers CCWC sponsored in 2003 and for a club trip to see The Glories of Ancient Egypt and African Gold at the High Museum.

Volunteers are needed to work as hospitality hostesses at the CCAC's upcoming Fine Arts Mecca Festival.

Conservation: Club members are invited to help plant 100 longleaf pines at UWG on February 20, Arbor Day.

A one-week Master Gardeners' course will be offered this summer. Call the Ag Center for information.

Work continues at the Perry House garden. The department seeks donations of old bricks for construction of a patio. Rocks are also needed.

Education: Our CLEW (Community Leadership Education Workshop) will be from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the InZone youth building behind the First United Methodist Church, Carrollton, on Thursday, March 25. CLEW is a one-day workshop to help approximately 35 selected area high school sophomores develop their leadership skills. It is held under the auspices of HOBY, the Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership Program, a national program for one student from each high school across the nation. Although it is coordinated by the Education Department, CLEW is a club project. About 20 members are needed to help with setup, donations of cookies and drinks, serving of food, cleanup, and several of the activities during the program. Checks for support of CLEW should be made to CCWC Foundation and marked CLEW for tax deductions. Call Penny Ayers, 770-854-4801, to volunteer; or e-mail prapwal@aol.com.

Home Life: In January the department donated 24 suitcases, tote bags, backpacks and storybooks to the Foster Children's Program; donated care bags to Hospice and DFACS; and provided refreshments for the Alzheimer's Support Group.

International Affairs: About 10 club members attended International Night at UWG.

Public Affairs: Please continue clipping coupons for military families overseas and give them to Martha Ann Saunders, who sends them to COMFLEACT monthly.

Friends of New Hope purchased underwear, athletic shoes, towels and washcloths for the New Hope Boys' Home in January. On February 12, the Friends hosted a Valentine's dinner at Ryans for the boys and staff. Thanks to all of you for your donations of time, money, and supplies for the home.

Flag dates: There are no patriotic dates in February beyond the 16th and none in March. Of course, you are encouraged to fly your flag whenever possible.

Tallulah Falls:

Please continue to bring Campbell's Soup labels to the club meetings as well as "change" for students' spending money. Helen Fay Lewis chairs the Tallulah Falls Committee.

March of Dimes:

Joy Gould will have tickets for the March of Dimes raffle for sale at the February 25 general meeting.

Carrollton Civic Woman's Club General Meeting January 22, 2004

President Nina Chaffin called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Ginny McGee introduced the speaker, Adebayo Onabule, international student at the UWG from Nigeria. There are presently international students from 4 countries at the university.

Margaret Hilley gave the devotional and Edith Maxwell led the pledge to the flag. Callie Mohn introduced the guests: Jo Edwards, sponsored by Johnnye Hutchins; and Janet Kiczek, sponsored by Eleanor Hoomes. There were 38 members present.

Officers' Reports

First Vice President: Martha Ann Saunders introduced new member Aloma Parker.

Second Vice President: Gwen Chesnut thanked everyone for their departmental reports.

Recording Secretary: Sharon Hearnburg not present; no minutes

Treasurer: Callie Mohn, motion passed to accept budget

Old Business

Dream House Van: We have collected $157.00.

New Business

Martha Ann Saunders has 160 tickets for the pancake breakfast. Club members are asked to sell them. The club gets half of the ticket sales.

Jackie Ward presented the Citizen of the Year award to Margarete Hilley.

The Family of the Year award went to the Joy Gould family.
