Wednesday, June 22, 11:30 a.m. / Sunset Hills Country Club

The program will be an informational meeting about the Ferst Foundation for Childhood Literacy in Carroll County. This is a good opportunity to learn more about the program and what has been accomplished to date.

Club Concerns

Penny and Randy Ayers – Randy's mother has passed away.

Jayne Sanders – Jayne has been hospitalized for a heart problem.

Juanita Cobb – Juanita has moved to California and is living with her daughter in a special care home. Her new address is Juanita Cobb, c/o Sandra Orsak, 4903 Bella Collina St., Oceanside, CA 92056.

Actions Taken by Board on June 10

Voted to make the 2005 Fourth of July parade float a club project with a budget not to exceed $50.00.

Received confirmation from Sunset Hills Country Club that this year's November and December general meetings can be held on the third rather than the fourth Wednesday: November 16 and December 21.

Live Oaks Shelter

Contact Karen Hartley, 770-459-6050, if you'd like to help make window treatments for the Live Oaks Shelter. The Shelter is scheduled to open in August.

Jennie Award Nominee

Leadership Committee Chair Helon Styles reports that she has submitted a Jennie Award nomination packet for Gwyn Chesnut, CCWC's nominee. Good luck, Gwyn!

Department Reports

Conservation: All members are invited to attend the dedication ceremony of the Curtis Gardens at the Curtis-Marlow-Perry House on August 4 from 7:00-8:30 p.m.

Conservation Department members, please call Edith Morehead or Margaret Hickson if you are attending the July 11 meeting of the Conservation Department.

Education: The Education Department will provide refreshments for the Summer Reading Program at the library in July.

Home Life: The Department is collecting tote bags and suitcases for foster children.

Members are encouraged to donate new or “valued” items for the silent auction to be held at the October 11 salad luncheon fundraiser. Handcrafted items are always especially appreciated.

Public Affairs: In May, 3,032 coupons worth $2,915.33 were mailed to COMFLEACT for military families overseas.

The Club has received a thank-you letter from the Emergency Shelter for toiletries donated by members.

Try This on Your Computer

Several members have had trouble getting to the monthly newsletter on the internet. Here’s what to do: Go to www.ccwc.dennisgould.com

The screen will look like this:

The three most recent newsletters (April, May, and June 2005) will be listed below the message about Adobe Acrobat Reader. If Acrobat Reader is already installed on your computer, just click on the month you want to see. If it isn’t, click on the Adobe Acrobat Reader link and follow the instructions to install Acrobat Reader on your computer. Then click on the month you want.

If you want to look at old newsletters, click on “Our Archives” in the upper left corner of the screen.

Please call Lora Tate, 770/834-3782, if you have questions or comments.

CCWC Collects!

If you’re new to the Civic Woman’s Club you may wonder what’s in all those little bags and bundles that are left on the table at the end of the meeting. Well, it’s all about recycling useful things—and the list is lengthy. Here are some of the items that CCWC collects and how they’re used:
